

BUNKERS ADMITS PERJURY

JOHNSON WANTS TO HAVE HIM PROSECUTED AGAIN

Ex-Senator Declares He Made a Confession Because He Was Abandoned by His Colleagues After He Went to Prison.

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 14.—When ex-Senator Harry Bunkers took the stand today in the trial of his former colleague, ex-Senator E. J. Emmons, on a charge of bribery, District Attorney Seymour asked him to relate a conversation he had with Jos. S. Jordan, in which the latter had said one building and loan association had "Dropped out."

Something for Them.

Attorney Johnson, for the defense, objected on the ground that it was cross-examination of his own witness. The court overruled the objection, and Bunkers said Jordan told him that there would be only three companies and that instead of getting $500 each, they would get only $350.

Seymour asked what these three companies were and the witness said they were the Phoenix, the Renters and the Pacific States, all building and loan associations.

The witness again told of a conversation he had with Emmons, in which he told the latter that Jordan had informed him that he would soon have something good to bring to them. Bunkers said Emmons replied that was the kind of talk he liked to hear.

Committed Perjury.

The witness, said he informed Jordan that the committee would protect the Phoenix and the Renters and avoid issuing a subpoena against them. Much to the surprise of the crowd in the courtroom, District Attorney Seymour closed the direct examination of Bunkers and turning dramatically to Johnson, said:

"Take the witness."

Without hesitation, Attorney Johnson took up the cross-examination. After a few minor questions, Johnson asked:

"ARE YOU THE HARRY BUNKERS WHO WAS ON TRIAL IN THIS COURT LAST APRIL FOR BRIBERY?"

"YES, SIR," THE WITNESS RESPONDED.

"YOU TESTIFIED TO A STATE OF FACTS AT THAT TIME WITH REFERENCE TO YOUR CONNECTION WITH THE BRIBERY CASE DIFFERENT FROM THAT TO WHICH YOU NOW TESTIFY. ON WHICH OCCASION WAS IT THAT YOU COMMITTED PERJURY—THEN OR NOW?"

AN OBJECTION WAS

RAISED TO THIS QUESTION, WHICH THE COURT OVERRULED. JOHNSON RENEWED THE QUESTION AND AFTER SOME HESITATION BUNKERS REPLIED:

"WELL, I AM TELLING THE TRUTH NOW, BUT DID NOT TELL THE TRUTH AT MY TRIAL."

"THEN YOU COMMITTED PERJURY THEN?"

AN OBJECTION TO THIS DECLARATION WAS SUSTAINED.

No Promise Made.

Johnson then declared that the District Attorney should swear to a complaint charging Bunkers with the crime of perjury. He added that if the District Attorney did not swear to a complaint he (Johnson) would.

The court ruled Johnson out of order. The defense then took up the confession made by Bunkers to the District Attorney.

Bunkers told of having made a statement to the District Attorney in the presence of County Detective Philip O'Neil, which was taken down in shorthand by the official court reporter, Warren E. Doane.

In answer to a question by Johnson, Bunkers said he did not sign the statement or confession. He also testified that no promises of reward of any kind had been made to induce him to make a confession.

Johnson then started on a hunt for the confession and in answer to a number of questions Bunkers said he believed it is in the possession of Seymour.

Wants Confession.

Johnson then created a mild sensation by asking the court for an order directing the prosecution to turn the confession over to the defense. Chas. T. Jones, special counsel for the prosecution, objected strenuously, whereupon Johnson declared he wanted to show that Bunkers had made statements in the confession which were wholly contradictory of testimony he gave on the witness stand yesterday.

Jones charged Johnson with attempting to influence the jury by making a declaration he could not prove. Johnson declared that he had no such motive. Johnson proceeded to the citation of authorities in support of his motion for an order requesting Seymour to give up the confession. He referred to Bunkers as a confessed perjurer, and the statements he had made to the District Attorney were vital to the defense and the defense was entitled to it.

Seymour followed, resisting Johnson's contention. He said the document in his possession was simply a transcription of notes of statements made by Reporter Doane. The statements

WILL SELL LAND TO THE CITY

Adams Estate Agrees With Mayor to Convey Lake Land.

Mayor Frank Mott will lay before the City Council tonight a proposition relating to future beautifying of Lake Merritt, which will mean much for Oakland.

This proposition is for the city to purchase from the Adams estate about six acres of land, which juts into the lake north of Twelfth street dam, and east of Fallon street.

Conservative estimates by men familiar with real estate values place this property at present as worth $30,000. Improved and reclaimed, or filled in, it would be double that amount in value.

MAYOR NEGOTIATES.

Acting under authority given by the City Councilmen in committee, Mayor Mott has successfully negotiated with the Adams estate owners for the purchase of the six acres the price agreed being only $15,000.

The City Council will be asked to appropriate that sum and authorize the purchase.

Said Mayor Mott today: "In my judgment, the price which the Adams estate owners have agreed to take for the six acres they own in Lake Merritt is extremely fair. Messrs. Edson F. Adams and John C. Adams, and their sister, Mrs. Julia Prather, have shown commendable public spirit in the negotiations over this matter."

THE ACREAGE.

The acreage they own in the southwestern corner of Lake Merritt has a frontage of about 600 feet on Twelfth street dam. Two boat houses are on the property. Now is the time for the city to acquire the entire frontage along the dam. The title held by the Adams estate came from the Peralta grant and is unassailable. The relinquishment of this land by the Adams estate owners to the city will practically clear up all disputed portions of the lake. It will also mean the beginning of great improvements in Lake Merritt. Ornamental boat-houses can be built there in place of the present unsightly structures, and the people will own the entire lake within the boulevard lines.

I shall tonight lay this matter before the City Council and advise the immediate purchase of the land in question.

POLICE CANNOT TRACE FIVE MEN WHO ASSAULTED GIRL

INTERIOR VIEW OF ALAMEDA BOATING CLUB'S QUARTERS

ALAMEDA PEOPLE EXCITED

Every Effort is Being Made to Save the Accused.

Girl is Sent Away by Her Guardians So She Cannot Talk.

Below is a copy of the postal card sent to the eighty or ninety men young and of middle age who comprise the Alameda Boating Club, calling for a special meeting of that organization tomorrow night, to take action regarding the charges of the profanation of the home of the club by the commission of a festive crime upon a girl, Florence Cook who has, as yet not attained her fifteenth year. Five young men are accused.

CRIME COMMITTED.

That a crime has been committed in this case is undoubtedly true. The victim is in years but a child and the enormity of the offense is increased by the fact that the mentality of the little one is not such as might be expected to be found in a child whose faculties had not been impaired by nature.

SHE IS AN ORPHAN.

To still further aggravate the offense the girl is an orphan without her natural guardians to protect or defend her, and depending entirely upon sympathetic people—Mr. and Mrs. John H. Tingman of 1609 Lafayette street—who removed her from an orphanage to raise her in their home.

The girl has made the charge that she was assaulted in the home of the Alameda Boating Club, which is situated on the south side of Oakland Harbor at the head of what is known in this city as Chestnut.

CLUB HOUSE AND CLUB.

The house has a fine landing and is reached from the shore by a fine gang-

ALAMEDA BOATING CLUB.

"ALAMEDA, SEPT. 13, 1905.—THERE WILL BE A SPECIAL MEETING OF THE ALAMEDA BOATING CLUB, NEXT FRIDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 15, AT 8.30 SHARP, AT THE BOAT-HOUSE.
"IT IS IMPERATIVE THAT YOU ATTEND. REFLECTIONS HAVE BEEN CAST UPON THE GOOD NAME OF THE CLUB.
"ALTHOUGH THE ALAMEDA BOATING CLUB HAS BEEN VINDICATED, THERE ARE OTHER MATTERS PERTAINING TO THE AFFAIR, AS PUBLISHED IN THE NEWSPAPERS, THAT MUST RECEIVE OUR IMMEDIATE ATTENTION.
"THE FUTURE OF OUR CLUB DEPENDS UPON YOUR PRESENCE."
"J. J. HAMMOND, SEC'Y. A. KIHN, PRESIDENT."

Its land is exclusively for its members and is specially denied to attaches of vessels which at all seasons of the year line the Alameda shore. The members of the club are selected from the best and most respectable young manhood of the Enclinal, and when it is said that the stigma which has been attached to the organization by this little one's story has stirred polite society in this city to the utmost, it is but to feebly express the situation at this writing.

KIHN'S URGENCY.

It is because of this knowledge of the case that President Albert Kihn, of the club placed in his postal card, above printed, calling for a special meeting, the following line in bold-face type

"THE FUTURE OF OUR CLUB DEPENDS UPON YOUR PRESENCE."
TELLS TWO STORIES.
This line was written despite the fact that President Kihn who has abandoned his vacation to sift the matter to the bottom, knew that in the story told by the girl the Chief of Police Conrad and a number of other people, differed radically upon many

THE PUBLIC WANTS NEW TELEPHONE

Committee of the Whole Expected to Grant the Franchise at the Meeting Tonight.

Tonight the ordinance granting the Home Telephone Company of Alameda county a franchise will come up before the Committee of the Whole of the Council. Public sentiment is insistent for prompt and decisive action. It is unanimous in favor of granting the franchise.

The application of the Home Telephone Company has been before the Council since the 21st of August. The terms have been repeatedly published and exhaustively discussed. No responsible persons have appeared to protest against granting the franchise. The opposition is invisible and anonymous.

The ordinance has been considered by the Ordinance and Judiciary Committee, in conjunction with the City Attorney. For ten days it has been before the Committee of the Whole, and has been considered from every point of view.

On September 7 the Committee of the Whole held a special meeting to hear petitions and protests, and afterwards met in executive session to consider the points raised.

Abundant time and opportunity has therefore been given for a full consideration of the questions involved and the several provisions of the proposed franchise.

Thousands of citizens in every line of business and industry and every walk of life have petitioned the Council to grant the franchise. The public is familiar with it. The public demands it. The public confidently expects the Committee to report the franchise favorably tonight. The public will be disappointed and indignant if there is further procrastination or attempts to load the franchise down with impossible conditions offered to kill by indirection a proposition that the people are a unit in favoring.

It is up to the Council to act tonight.

COUNCILMAN THURSTON ON POLICE CANNOT TELEPHONE FRANCHISE TRACE FIVE MEN

Reply to Points Made by the Councilman-at-Large—Leading Citizens Who Signed the Petition.

Editor TRIBUNE: You may say for me that I am not yet ready to state which way I shall vote on the proposed telephone franchise ordinance, nor shall I until I have carefully examined the ordinance in its final form, and even then there may still be the question upon my mind as to whether the benefits that will presumably accrue to the citizens, consisting of improved service and greater privacy, not be counterbalanced by the inconvenience and added expense attendant upon the use of two independent systems.

There has been a guessing attempt made to ruse this proposition through the Council before the members could find time to review the subject sufficiently, properly to protect the interests of the people. Political influence has been brought into play and the scene in the Council chamber at the meeting of the Committee of the Whole, with packed lobby cheering and jeering by turns, was certainly not in consonance with legislative dignity. Happily, the Council refused to be rushed and the result will be that the ordinance that will come before the Committee of the Whole tonight for its consideration will hardly be recognized as of the same order as the original one.

There are a few arguments advanced in favor of the passage of the proposed ordinance (which, be it understood, once enacted, would absolutely bind the city to sell to the highest responsible bidder, without privilege of rejecting said highest bid even should it be only one dollar), a franchise worth millions to its possessor, that merit some remarks. It has been stated that the automatic switchboard will be used and all party lines eliminated. But these things are not mentioned in the proposed ordinance, which permits the use of any system the owner may see fit to employ. We are told that the people demand competition in telephone, and extensive petitions have been circulated at the premises, but inquiry among some of the signatories establish the unimportance of the petitions. One merchant stated that of course he favored anything that would bring about the expenditure of money in Oakland, but wasn't sure of the advisability of competition in telephone. The publicly circulated petition is practically always misleading and vicious in tendency. It is difficult to secure unbiased testimony as to the desirability of competition in this matter, but such as I have been able to get has been almost unanimously against competition. It would be well, indeed, if the Council could visit Los Angeles and study the matter at first hand for a day or so.

At this point I desire to state that I have taken occasion to inspect carefully both the specimen installation of the automatic switchboard in San Francisco and the newly installed multiple manual switchboard in the new building of the local company and freely declare my admiration for both. The former is still somewhat of an experiment, but if no mechanical defects interfere, must ultimately entirely supersede the manual, while the latter is in the nature of a development from the old style switchboard, certainly presents vast improvements over the present system, and, in a comparison of the old and proposed systems it is but fair to state that the former possesses the advantage of an actual installation of vastly improved service almost ready for operation as opposed to a verbally promised installation of an apparently superior service.

In conclusion, I will say that owing to the untiring efforts of a certain member of the Council several conditions have been suggested to the petitioner which, if agreed upon and embodied in satisfactory shape in the ordinance, will very materially alter its aspect from the standpoint of a desirable bargain on the part of the city, and it may be that all doubts may be swept aside by the time the ordinance comes up for final action. In any event we will be wise to make haste slowly.

E. T. THURSTON JR.

[The application of the Home Telephone Company was presented to the Council on August 21, was then referred to the Ordinance and Judiciary Committee and the City Attorney, and the proposed ordinance was referred to the Committee of the Whole on September 5, by the Judiciary Committee. The matter has been under continual discussion ever since the application was filed. The terms of the proposition are clear, specific and unequivocal.]

Consequently there has been ample time to study and digest, not only the provisions of the franchise, but the policy of granting it. Public opinion has unanimously decided in favor of granting the franchise.

Of course the Council has been subjected to pressure, but it was the pressure of public sentiment. There is no disinterested opinion in the city against giving the Home Telephone Company a franchise.

Thousands of citizens, including leading merchants, bankers and property owners, have petitioned the Council to grant the franchise. No body of citizens has protested. The opposition is anonymous, and its sole argument is that monopoly is preferable to competition. Among the thousands who have petitioned for the granting of this franchise are: C. J. Hesseman, H. C. Capwell Company, Abrahamson Bros. (Inc.), M. J. Keller, John Chas. Adams, Union National Bank; D. Edward Collins, president California Bank; A. D. Wilson, vice-president Security Bank and Trust Co.; J. Y. Beeston, cashier Oakland Bank of Savings; C. E. Palmer, cashier Union National Bank; George Schammel, assistant cashier Union National Bank; Frank H. Brooks, cashier California Bank; Chas. T. Rodolph, vice-president Union Savings Bank; People's Express, Ingram Hardware Co., Pierce Hardware Co., Smith-Brown Hardware Co., Goldberg, Bowen Co., W. H. Campbell Co., Braley-Grote Furniture Company, Sherman, Clay Co., Walter G. Manuel, and a host of other business men, including all the leading mercantile and manufacturing establishments in Oakland.

Against this universal demand there is not one prominent citizen or business man in opposition. Nobody has come out in the open to oppose the franchise. What opposition there is is furtive and working in the dark. On one side there is the great mass of the citizens of Oakland openly arrayed, and on the other an anonymous opposition without responsible head or popular backing.

The proposed ordinance provides that the franchise shall be sold for a minimum price of $20,000. In addition, the purchasers will be bound to pay into the city treasury annually, at the expiration of five years, two per cent of the gross receipts derived from the operation of the same.—Editor TRIBUNE.]

points.

At certain times she alleges that the offense had been committed in the club house of the Oakland Boating Club and others that it had taken place in other localities. He also knew that a certain member of the club, who was alleged to have been one of her assailants last Sunday night was conclusively shown to have been at home at the time of the alleged crime. He also knew that at the time of the alleged offense Mrs. Yates of 1823 Alameda avenue, at whose home the Cook girl was temporarily sojourning, called up the club house over the telephone making inquiry as to whether or not the girl was there and received an answer from one of a number of young men who were there at the time to the effect that there was no lady about the premises.

AFTER THE GUILTY.

The Alameda Boating Club, therefore, is determined to leave nothing undone to locate the perpetrators of the crime, despite the fact that they are satisfied that it was never committed on property under their control. If, however, they discover that any of their members has been in any way connected with the outrage it is their purpose to sever their connection with the organization. The Club is now working on a new clew which was recently given to them and Chief Conrad in which case, the full name of a young man was given. This name, however, President Kinn and Chief Conrad refuse to give up, lest it might prove incorrect and be thus an injustice upon an innocent individual.

PRESIDENT KINN'S STORY.

Features of the girl's story are contradicted by an examination of the Boat Club which was made today by a TRIBUNE reporter. Speaking on the subject today, President Kinn said:

"I was present when this girl made her statement to Chief Conrad, Detective Brown and several others. I have the original note from Mrs. Tingman and her husband. After hearing that statement they were satisfied that the offense had not been committed in our club house. The Cook girl said that she had been locked up all night in the telephone closet of the clubroom. When you see that closet you will see how preposterous that would be, because it is so small that she could not live an hour in it. She would be suffocated. She could not have been locked in that closet, because while there is a lock on the door here is no member in the club who has a key to it. There has never been any occasion to use a key for that door. Besides that at 9:30 Mrs. Yates called up the phone at the clubroom and asked if the girl was there, and one of our members answered the phone at the time. The phone could not have been answered if the girl was locked in the closet.

COULD HAVE ESCAPED.

"The lock on the door of the assembly room of the club in which the telephone closet is located has a spring lock. All the girl would have had to do to open that door would have been to simply turn the knob on the inside of the lock, and the door could be opened. It is a Yale lock and the key is only used on the outside, but it is used simply to unlock the door and not to lock it. When she made the story of being locked in there also I asked her why she did not turn the lock in the inside and she said, 'I didn't think of that.' Now it is likely that a girl could have been locked in a place under those circumstances or if she strove to get out she would not think of trying to turn the knob on the door which would have let her out. More than that, if she didn't think of turning the knob on the lock she certainly would think of trying to get out of the windows. There are two windows in the north end of our clubroom and these windows open on a balcony outside, and this balcony leads to the stairs down to the gangway. She could have easily raised those windows and gotten out in that way.

MRS. MOEGUS.

Mrs. Moegus, who had seen the girl perhaps at six o'clock Monday morning, was sought by a TRIBUNE reporter to ascertain whether or not the little one had told her about the alleged outrage, but could not be found at her home on the ark near the Hartman Boat House.

DETECTIVE BROWN.

It developed this morning in conversation between the TRIBUNE reporter and Detective Brown that the Cook girl told him nothing when first he met her after her absence from home that she had been assaulted in the Alameda Boating Club headquarters and had been locked up there all night. Speaking on the subject, Detective Brown said:

"I found her at Blanding avenue and Park street. I had been informed that she was missing from home. I recognized her because I have known her for four or five months. I asked her where she had been all night and she told me that she had been home all night, and that she had just come from home. I told her that I could prove that she had not been home and took her to Mrs. Tingman's on Lafayette street, but I was not present when she talked with that lady about her absence."

CHIEF CONRAD.

Chief of Police Conrad is greatly annoyed over the offense. Despite the fact that the girl has told a number of stories, he is satisfied that a wrong been committed, and is doing all in his power to find out the perpetrator.

"I am doing all that is possible to do to find out who has done wrong. This girl is only 14 years of age and there is no doubt that she has been wronged. She has told stories about different people that have been disproved by facts and circumstances and by people whose word cannot be questioned. She does not tell the same story twice. She tells about being doped with whiskey. I asked her what she drank the whiskey out of and she said it was out of a jelly glass. We have a jelly glass here which we use for drinking. I asked her if I should fill it with water, would she indicate how much whiskey the glass contained when she drank. She said she would. I filled the glass with water and then told her to empty the glass down to the point which would indicate how much whiskey was left in the glass which she was compelled to drink. She threw out a certain amount of the water and then stated afterward that she had thrown out too much, that there was more whiskey in the glass than there was water which she held. We have certain people under suspicion and the names of some of these have been given to us by this girl."

"I do not want to give their names to the public because if the people are innocent injustice would be done them, and if they are not innocent it would be like hunting criminals with a brass bullet. There will be nothing left undone to arrest the right man."

The girl has been sent away.

were not sworn to by Bunkers, were never signed by him, nor were they ever read to him, Seymour stated. He held that the confession was his personal memoranda and could not be introduced in evidence. Seymour then cited authorities to offset those offered by Johnson.

On Wrong Tack.

Johnson said Seymour had gone off on the wrong tack, evidently believing that he (Johnson) wanted to introduce the statement in evidence. Johnson said he did not want to introduce the document in evidence. He was seeking to get possession of the confession, in order that he might ask Bunkers some questions from it and thus show that statements made by him to Seymour were in conflict with the testimony given by him in the political trial.

The argument consumed considerable time and at its conclusion denied the motion. He said he did not believe the court had jurisdiction to order Seymour to give up the statement. It was apparent to him, Judge Hart said, that the document was of the nature of a private memorandum.

Seymour had caused notes to be taken of his conversation with Bunkers for his own convenience. After Johnson's motion had been disposed of, the attorney asked Bunkers if his statement or confession had been read to him. The witness said a few lines had been read to him and he supposed from what little had been read that the rest of the document was correct.

Johnson then took up the question of Bunkers' memory, and the witness said the longer he stayed in jail the worse his memory became.

Why He Confessed.

Johnson asked again what inducement had been offered him to make a statement. He replied that Seymour had told him that anything he might say would not be used against him in the event of his appeal to the Appellate Court being granted. Seymour also told him that he would not be prosecuted for perjury.

Johnson sought further information as to why Bunkers had confessed. The witness showed a spirit of revenge, and admitted that it was because Emmmons, Wright and French, and his friends had not assisted Mrs. Bunkers as they had promised to do.

"I'll tell you why I made that statement," said Bunkers, straightening in his chair, his face pale with passion. "It was because people who were supposed to be my friends never did what they promised, and left me in jail and never went near my wife and child. They left them to get along as best they could. I was told that Senator Emmmons

Bunkers was then asked if it were not a fact that Attorney Jacobs and District Attorney Seymour had promised to go into the Appellate Court and confess error in his case in order that he might have a new trial, in order to get the confession from him.

Bunkers said no such proposition had ever been discussed.

Johnson then asked Bunkers if he felt toward Wright and French as he felt toward Emmmons. Bunkers said he did and entertains the same feeling now.

GIRL IN CUSTODY.

Mabel Powell, a girl of sixteen, who came here some time ago from Seattle, and for awhile was an inmate of Beulah Home, after a sojourn among the Salvation Army folks, has been taken into custody by the police. Miss Anita Whitnev of the Associated Charities tried to find a home for the girl, but the latter has developed a condition of simple-mindedness which borders on insanity. She will be examined as to her mental condition, and may be committed to some public institution.

NOLAN TELLS OF FUND TO CORRUPT LEGISLATURE

Refusal to Pay Bet Causes Big Explosion in Sporting Circles—
Harry Corbett Accused.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 14.—Harry Corbett and Manager Billy Nolan have fallen out and the public is getting inside facts on sporting events.

Nolan charges Corbett with demanding that he contribute $1,000 towards the corruption fund used to kill the Ralston anti-prizefight bill at the last session of the Legislature, while Corbett accuses Nolan of having manipulated a number of crooked courting matches. Incidentally Corbett declares that Nolan is an adept in the fine art of compounding "slow" and "fast" powders for dogs, horses and other animals on whose speed the tyrant man risks his money.

The refusal of "Billy" Nolan, manager of the Dane, to pay a wager he made with Judge Horace Egbert of the California Jockey Club has opened up a dispute that puts a number of pug managers and betting commissioners in a nasty light.

Nolan, whose "peculiar" attitude and statements immediately prior to and since the Admission Day fight at Colma, has set the sporting world agog, is now accused of "welching" on a bet because of Referee Granby's decision declaring all bets off and is further charged by no less a personage in the sporting world than Harry Corbett of being guilty of crooked work of all kinds in connection with various "sporting" events. Incidentally he is accused of deception in his handling of Battling Nelson.

BET ON NELSON.

The Nolan episode occurred in Harry Corbett's resort last night. It appears that Corbett was the stakeholder for a wager of $100 made by Nolan with Horace Egbert. The manager of Nelson bet that his man would be the favorite in the pools over Britt. Egbert bet he would not. Immediately after Granby's calling all bets off Nolan warned Corbett not to pay Egbert the money.

Egbert insisted on the payment and Corbett was drawn into the quarrel. Shortly after 7 o'clock last evening Nelson went into Corbett's cafe to get his mail. Corbett at once proceeded to tell the new champion what he thought of his manager.

"I'm your friend, Bat," said Corbett. "And I want to tell you that you are in wrong with that fellow Nolan. He is no good, and I'll tell you why."

Then Corbett laid before the wondering Nelson a tale that made the Dane groggy. He told Nelson that he stood by Nolan through thick and thin for years past, but that from now on he is through with him.

LENT NOLAN MONEY.

"I recommended Nolan to you as a manager, Bat," said Corbett, "but now I am sorry for it. When Nolan first became connected with you he was dead broke, but he made you think he had money. I loaned him money to put up your forfeits and pay training expense. He got over $700 from me to put you through for your first fight under your management. After that fight he deposited a check for $3,250, which belonged to you and himself. He told me that he wanted to make you think he had money so he asked me not to force him to break the check, but to keep it intact. He borrowed further money from me, and all the time made you believe that he had plenty of money to back you, when he really had nothing. I've staked Nolan with money to run poolrooms and to back you, and I've lost by the proposition."

Then Corbett went on to tell Nelson of some real crooked work with which he charges Nolan. According to Corbett Nolan was once in the courting game. Nolan possessed a good dog and had him entered where he looked like an easy winner. Nolan borrowed $40 from a well-known sporting character

GHATS

"Procrastination is the thief of time"—we've heard that old adage often enough. It may also be the thief of your own and your family's happiness and comfort. NOW is the time to take out a dividend bearing endowment policy. Don't be a procrastinator in this. You can't afford it for your family's sake. The Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Company is the one which you want to do business. Learn more about it by addressing Walter Hoff Seely, Manager, San Francisco Branch, 103 Crocker Building.

named "Sky" and told "Sky" that he had fixed his dog to lose and they would clean up on a dog owned by a man named Murphy. The morning of the race Nolan took his dog out and ran him fifteen miles. Murphy, however, was on to the game and he took his dog out also but ran him 30 miles. When the race came off Nolan's dog won and "Sky's" $40 was lost. That was four years ago. "Sky" was in Corbett's when the story was told to Nelson and he stated to the listening crowd that Nolan only paid him the $40 a few days ago. Corbett claims that it was only after Nelson's last fight that he received the money he had advanced to Nolan.

In addition, Corbett went over, for Nelson's benefit, a long list of alleged acts on Nolan's part which failed to add in any way to Nolan's strange reputation.

"Nolan got you under false pretenses, Nelson," said Corbett in closing. "If you are wise you will shake him for good and all."

Nelson listened to Corbett without comment. When Corbett had delivered himself of his speech Nelson said, "Well, boys, I've got to go." And with that the Dane sauntered down the street.

CORRUPTION FUND.

Late last night Nolan said:

"Several weeks ago, when we were making this match with Britt, I posted a forfeit for Nelson. From time to time I have drawn the money down and now have a balance in Corbett's hands of $1,300. This money was put up for the appearance of Nelson in the ring. For the past several days I have called for this money. Corbett has always 'stalled' me off. Finally this afternoon he said to me: 'I am going to deduct $1,000 from your end for the corruption fund used in Sacramento this year to defeat the Ralston bill. The corruption fund amounted $7,000. I had to put the money up, and the different parties who were interested with me did not put up. Now, as you have earned one of the largest purses here, you are certainly under obligation to put up your share.'"

"I told him that I could not see it that way, as I had not promised him any money for such purpose. This caused the rupture between Corbett and myself."

"Several months ago—to be more specific, about three weeks after Nelson's last fight with young Corbett—Harry Corbett came to me and suggested that he and I could make a clean-up by having Nelson lose on a foul. He had reference to the second match with Jimmy Britt, which was afterwards called off. I refused to consider such a proposition, and he remarked that I had better make some sure money, as that was better than taking a chance." After that he always appeared rather cool and unfriendly toward me.

"Everybody knows how Corbett refused to give me the forfeit after Britt backed out of the second match I had made with him when he took on 'Kid' Sullivan. I also recall that at the time Corbett approached me in regard to having Nelson lose on a foul he remarked that 'it was a very easy matter to beat the game that way,' and also added that it was merely a matter of fixing the referee. He stated at the same time that 'he had put lots of them over the same way.'"

PRICE ON BRITT.

"Corbett's charges in regard to my actions in certain dog races are positively without foundation. He and some of his friends framed the story up several days ago in order to hurt me with Nelson and to try to get 'Bat' to throw me over. Corbett and a couple of his friends tonight talked the matter over with Nelson. I saw 'Bat' afterward and he told me what Corbett had said out no figure with him. He said that he did not believe a word of it."

"Corbett came to me personally when the fight over the referee was on and asked me if I would select him as referee. When Willie Britt named him as the first candidate for the position of referee I objected to him on the grounds of incompetency. That was not my only reason, however, as I distrusted him after what he had said to me on former occasions. This news was carried to Corbett and he was very sore at being turned down, although he tried to hide it by saying to his friends that he would not act if selected."

"When it comes to a question of having a reputation for honesty I am willing to match my standing in the community against Corbett's any day. This explanation will perhaps shed a little light on the suspicious price of the betting in connection with the Britt-Nelson fight before the referee was changed."

GORGEOUS SPECTACLE

Within the past twenty-five years nothing has been produced in the way of open-air midsummer-night amusements, either in Europe or America, that equals the gorgeous Palm spectacle of which the "Last Days of Pompeii" is the most pretentious and at the same time popular.

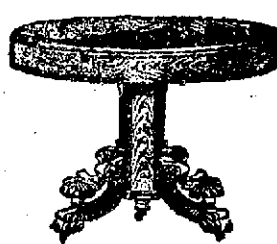

For a quarter of a century this great exhibition has been a favorite sight-seeing attraction in every important city, international exposition and resort at one time or another in America, England, Australia, Russia, France and Germany, its popularity extending even to far-off India and Africa.

These spectacular productions are a high-class entertainment that appeals to all classes and it is a notable fact that in all the world the famous Henry J. Paine has never had a competitor in the production of these elaborate pyrotechnic and spectacular displays. "Pompeii" will be produced in Oakland for an entire week beginning next Monday, September 15, on fully as elaborate a scale as it was at its "home" on fashionable Manhattan Beach, New York. Fully three hundred and fifty gorgeously costumed people will be seen in its stirring scenes and five acres of ground will be covered by the massive and picturesque scenic city that is to represent the ill-fated old Roman town as it stood nearly 2000 years ago.

Dr. H. B. Mehrmann saw the show at Portland and this is what he says: "Amongst other of the many attractions here are the Oaks. A park on the plan of, though not a circumstance to, our own Idora Park. Then we visited 'The Last Days of Pompeii,' a spectacular performance, gotten up regardless of cost and giving the most wonderful, electric and firework effects imaginable. I have had the pleasure of seeing many performances of a similar character, but I do not hesitate to say that 'The Last Days of Pompeii' is the most wonderful open-air show that has ever been produced. Don't fail to see it."

T. A. CLANCY, TRENTON, N. J. Says: "Cuticura cured me of sore hands after all else had failed."

PRETTY WEDDING.
A pretty wedding took place on Tuesday evening at the home of Dr. J. C. Stout on East Twenty-third street, when Miss Bertha R. Bates became the bride of Orvil Houghton of Porterville.

The reception hall and drawing room were effectively decorated in pink and green, while the library and dining room were in red.

The bride wore an exquisite gown of white silk and carried a bouquet of white roses, and her maid of honor, Miss Pearl Stout, was prettily gowned in white and carried pink carnations.

The groom was attended by Arthur Stout, brother of the maid of honor.

The nuptial vows were exchanged under a large wedding bell of pink blossoms.

The bride was given away by her cousin, Judge J. Palmer of Napa, and Rev. J. E. Singer of San Francisco officiated. The wedding march was played by Miss Edith Doty.

Only relatives and a few close friends were present. After the reception which followed the ceremony and the serving of refreshments, Mr. Houghton and his bride left for a short wedding trip and later they will go to the orange groves of Porterville, where a home has been prepared for them.

A notable confederation occurs between the date of this wedding and the coronation of the bride's parents. Her father and mother were married Tuesday evening, September 12, 1871, at 8 o'clock, and their only daughter was married Tuesday evening, September 12, 1905, at 8 o'clock.

WASHING WITHOUT WATER.
Is Like Trying to Get Rid of Dandruff Without Herpicide.

Did you ever see any one trying to wash themselves without soap or water? If you did what would you say of him?

It is every bit as foolish to try to get rid of dandruff and to prevent baldness by feeding the germs which cause it with Cantharides, Vaseline, Glycerine and similar substances which form the principal ingredients of most so-called Hair Vigors.

Newbro's Herpicide is successful because it attacks and kills the parasitic germ which feeds on the hair roots. It is the original and only genuine scalp germicide manufactured.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Company, Detroit, Michigan.

TEACHERS STUDY RANCHING

WILL THUS BECOME FAMILIAR WITH AGRICULTURAL PRODUCTS.

The school teachers of Oakland intend to become familiar not only with the products of Alameda county, but also of the manufactures and the manner of producing both in agricultural and manufacturing pursuits.

It is the intention of the teachers to make visits to the principal agricultural sections of the county, study soils, irrigation, pruning and budding of trees and all that goes to make this one of the finest counties in the State. They will each week impart the knowledge thus gained to their pupils. These excursions to the interior and to the manufacturing will be held on Saturdays.

The first practical study of ranching will be on Saturday next, when half a hundred teachers and the public schools of Oakland will visit local ranches and factories. They will take a special car at 10 o'clock Saturday morning from Thirteenth and Franklin streets, and the first stop will be made at the Meek estate ranch at San Lorenzo. There the teachers will study conditions, but as the season is so far advanced, the picking of fruit for the market and canneries, other than cucumbers and tomatoes, will not be seen. After an hour spent in this well-known ranch the party will again embark on the special car and go to the canyon in Hayward, where a picnic lunch will be partaken of.

At 1:30 o'clock carriages will be taken from the canyon to the large cannery of Hunt Bros., permission having been granted by the proprietors for the teachers to view the workings of a cannery employing hundreds of people. The Pacific Vinegar and Pickle Works, which at the present time is working full force in putting up pickles, ketchup and vinegar, will next be visited, permission having also been granted by the proprietors.

Thence the party will again take carriages for the canyon and return to Oakland on the special car. Thus from 10 o'clock in the morning until after 5 o'clock in the afternoon of next Saturday the small boy can wander around the streets of Oakland without fear of meeting "teacher."

Through the courtesies extended the teachers by the Meek estate, Hunt Bros., the Pacific Vinegar and Pickle Works, Gray Bros. of Haywards and the Oakland and Tracadero Consolidated an entire day's pleasure and instruction will be enjoyed by the teachers of the public schools of Oakland and the children of the city. Guides furnished by the local Board of Trade will accompany the party.

HERBERT GEORGE ON LABOR UNIONS

ALAMEDA, Sept. 14.—The open shop question was discussed at some length last night at the regular meeting of the Unitarian Club, Herbert George, president of the Citizens' Alliance of San Francisco, being the principal speaker.

Mr. George said in part:

"Since the organization of the Citizens' Alliance it has accomplished a great deal of good in our city. We do not believe in idling labor unions, but stand for liberty and protection. Only ten per cent of labor is organized. That ten per cent of the Citizens' Alliance as a union buster. This is not so, we stand for peace and harmony."

"Since the Citizens' Alliance was organized in Colorado there has been an increase of thirty per cent in real estate values, and the State is now producing more than in the past thirty years. We believe in organization to correct abuses, and not to kill the unions. Since the Alliance has been in San Francisco there has been no boycotting. The judges there were formerly afraid to take up these cases against the unions, but now they are not. The open shop is a God-giving light. The Citizens' Alliance needs the help of the press, but does not get it. Labor and capital are both wrong, and the more I see of the walking delegate the more I like a dog."

"It is the walking delegate who has forced labor to form unions. The solution of all this trouble is justice and love. The California Promoters Committee sends out circulars to advertise this State, but the newspapers knock it by publishing advertisements asking workmen to stay away. This is really the status of this question."

TO MAKE FIGHT AGAINST PASSES

LINCOLN, Neb., Sept. 14.—The Nebraska Republican State Convention met in this city today with a large attendance of delegates, and prospects for an interesting session, owing to agitation against railroad passes, which has been sweeping the State for several months. So great was the interest in this question that it promised to overshadow the primary work of the convention, which was the nomination of one candidate for the Supreme Court and two Regents for the State University.

The anti-pass agitators were determined that resolutions against the giving of such favors should be adopted by the convention this year in order that the question might be a positive issue next year, when candidates for the Legislature are named. Those who oppose the adoption of such resolution this year to get the position that it was idle to do so when none of the nominees of this convention could have anything to do in making an anti-pass law.

There was also a strong sentiment for a two-cent passenger fare and also distance freight tariff which would make it impossible for the railways to charge more for a short haul than for a long haul.

MAKES A REPORT ON CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR

BOSTON, Mass., Sept. 14.—The quarterly report on the progress of the Christian Endeavor movement by the Rev. Francis E. Clark, president of the United Society of Christian Endeavor, made public today, records advancement. There are 62,003 affiliated societies, an increase of 231, since the last convention.

The executive committee of the board of trustees has appointed an international committee to take charge of the plans for celebration of the silver anniversary of the movement.

This will take the form of the creation of a special fund for extending young people's work in all parts of the world, and the erection of an international headquarters building in honor of President Clark, the founder.

Will Be Taxed for Handling Medicine Containing Whiskey

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue today rendered a decision that will seriously affect a large number of patented medicines composed largely of distilled liquors. He has reversed a ruling of the department made many years ago and now declares that the manufacturers of these medicines must take out licenses as distillers and liquor dealers and that druggists and others handling the medicines pay the same.

The commissioner in a letter of instruction to collectors of internal revenue says that compounds of spirits sold on the market going under the name of medicines "that are composed chiefly or entirely of spirits" are subject to the drugs or medicines in sufficient quantities to change materially the character of the compound.

He authorized collectors to impose the special tax on manufacturers of every compound composed of spirits, even though drugs have been declared to have been added thereto, when their prescription is not supported by chemical analysis, or it is found that the quantity of drugs in the preparation is so small as to have no appreciable effect on the liquor.

CASE IS CONTINUED.

The Benedict-Guest embroglia over a dress-shed business out of which grew a charge of felony, had its first today in Police Judge Smith's Court. Owing to the absence of Attorney Ben Woolner, the case went over to October 12th when additional testimony is to be taken.

Charles Benedict and W. L. Guest were formerly partners in business. They dissolved partnership, Benedict wrote a check for $1000 to Guest for information about a patent Gross had secured. Guest construed the letter as an attempt to extort money and secured Benedict's arrest on a charge of felony.

Comparative Cost of State and Private Education

The increasing cost of giving a university course—not the cost to the student but the actual cost to the institution—in the leading universities of the East, particularly Harvard, Yale, Columbia, Princeton and Cornell, has been the subject of much recent discussion. It is admitted that the expense of university maintenance is increasing faster than endowment funds, and each commencement is punctuated by appeals for more money. All the great universities have their hands outstretched for gifts, and last year several of them—notably Yale and Harvard—showed a dividend on the wrong side of the ledger when a balance was struck between income and outgo.

Although tuition fees constitute but a trifling proportion of the income, the expense—largely contingent—to the individual student is steadily mounting up. That is, it costs the student personally more to acquire a university education the larger the endowment fund of his alma mater and the smaller place in its income taken by his fees. This tendency of modern scholastic life in the older and chief American seats of learning has afforded much food for thought.

A new element to the discussion has been added by President Pritchett in an address originally delivered at the University of Michigan and subsequently embodied in an article printed in the September Atlantic, comparing the per capita cost of education in State and privately controlled universities. It is a popular axiom that a private corporation will conduct a business more economically than a State or municipality, but the rule does not appear to hold good in educational institutions. It costs the student and the institution more to educate in private institutions than in public ones, according to figures presented by President Pritchett. Compare the six Eastern universities of Harvard, Yale, Columbia, Pennsylvania, Princeton and Brown, all under private control, with the six great State universities of Michigan, Wisconsin, Illinois, Minnesota, Nebraska and California. The Eastern six use 1938 teachers for 18,498 students at a total annual cost of $5,137,041, the average annual cost per student being $266. The six Western State universities use 1687 teachers for 20,880 students at a total annual cost of $4,107,750, the average annual cost per student being $186. The lower cost to the university per student in the Western institutions is the more remarkable because in four of the six tuition is free, while in the other two it averages no more than $50.

If the comparison were extended still further it would probably be found that the results here stated would be accentuated. That being the case, the general rule that State universities are more cheaply conducted than private ones must be taken to be established. That State educational institutions are more democratic and less susceptible to class influence is a fact that cannot be gainsaid, and the character of the scholastic training they afford is certainly not inferior to that given in the best of the privately controlled institutions of the same character. Indeed, the State universities have relatively made much greater progress of late years than have the private seats of learning. Compare for instance, the growth of Harvard and Yale during the past thirty years with that of Berkeley and Ann Arbor—the two greatest of State universities—and the advantage is all with the latter. The demonstration is clearly in favor of State-conducted universities whether it be made from the standpoint of the student or the economist.

Three negroes have recently been burned at the stake in Texas. It is apparent that this form of torture does not prevent the crime it is intended to prevent. What other excuse is there for the barbarity? The debasement of the popular mind caused by public burning of human beings to death is something horrible to contemplate. The people of Texas are only injuring themselves by punishing one revolting crime with another almost equally revolting

Our War the Greatest

The following from the Fresno Democrat contains an appalling amount of misinformation—we politely omit to call it misrepresentation:

"Russia and Japan had each about 500,000 men at the front in the recent war. The North and South all told had less than that number in the field during the unpleasantness before the last, and yet today, 40 years after the fact, Uncle Sam carries nearly one million pensioners on the national roll. The pension roll, like compound interest, fattened upon itself."

During the Civil War about 2,300,000 men enlisted and joined the colors of the United States army. The total number of enlistments aggregated nearly 2,800,000, but eliminating re-enlistments and desertions the number of men mustered into actual service was about 2,300,000. It is impossible to arrive at the exact figures. When the war closed over 1,100,000 men were answering field muster roll in the Federal army. The South mustered in a total of about 700,000 men, but it is impossible to tell how many were in actual line at the close of the struggle. There was no time after April 1, 1862, that the combined forces in the field of the Confederacy did not aggregate more than the combined armies of Russia and Japan in Manchuria. It is true that no such vast armies as those commanded by Oyama and Kuropatkin were ever assembled in a single force in America, but the theatre of war extended along a front of more than 1,200 miles, and simultaneous operations were being conducted at widely separated points by half a dozen armies on both sides. For instance, when Meade was confronting Lee in the Gettysburg campaign, Grant was besieging Vicksburg, Rosecrans was pushing southeast in Tennessee, Steele was forcing Price, Walker and Taylor southwest of the Mississippi and General Thomas W. Sherman was hammering away at Charleston. There were also operations along the coast from Port Royal to Pamlico Sound and in the mountains skirting the Shenandoah Valley; also an expedition moving up Red River from New Orleans. In other words, the Confederacy was being attacked and defended at all points, while in this war the forces of Japan and Russia have been operating as single bodies, attacking and defending a single line of communication. In its desire to make a point against the Civil War pensioners, the Democrat misrepresents the facts of history and ignores the conditions under which the American war was fought.

The amiable and long-eared sportsman who pots his hunting companion in mistake for a deer is again heard from. The latest one to shoot at a rustle in the brush and "snipe" a friend appeared the other day in Mendocino county. Is it not about time to amend the game laws by inserting a section making it murder to kill a man by mistake in the hunting field? Now all a person has to do to get rid of another whose presence on earth is for any reason objectionable, is to invite the victim to join in a hunt and permit accident and a sure aim to do the rest. It is altogether too easy. It is even simpler and safer than shooting a wife for a burglar—by mistake of course.

A cablegram says the Mikado received E. H. Harriman with a great show of respect. The Mikado appreciates the financial importance of a man who can increase the capitalized value of a railroad system $63,000,000 in half an hour. It gives the Japanese Emperor considerable trouble to raise that amount on the security of his empire.

The Duty of Alameda

The Alameda Argus is right in saying the alleged outrage on a young girl between fifteen and sixteen years should be probed to the bottom. Attempts to hush the matter up are only confirmatory evidence that the girl's story is true and that she was infamously misused by young men of influential family connections. If such outrages are to go unpunished because the victims are poor and friendless while the assailants are well connected and move in respectable society then there is no virtue in the administration of the law. Alameda has gained unenviable notoriety during the last five years by a series of crimes against chastity, and it behooves the good people of that town—who constitute an overwhelming majority of the inhabitants—to expose and punish the perpetrators of the offenses that such infamies will be discouraged in future. In justice to the community the facts should be made public. If the girl's story is true, as circumstances indicate, the guilty parties should be punished to the full extent of the law. If she has gulled the public with a weird fiction, as has been intimated, to cover a wild escapade, it is equally necessary that the facts should be fully ventilated. If the girl was a consenting party to any orgie, she must have had male partners and tempters. In any event, the law was violated and a felony committed because she is under the age of legal consent and reasonable responsibility. She is an orphan deprived of the natural protection of home and parents, and hence is an object of chivalrous solicitude to every manly mind, not a prey to evil passions and debased appetites. Her youth, her orphaned state, her poverty and dependence give her a claim to the sympathy and protection of all decent-minded men. If so-called respectable young men made her the willing or unwilling instrument of their vicious pleasures, they deserve to wear felon's stripes and be herded with the degraded class to which they naturally belong.

The Los Angeles Express refers to Secretary Taft as "Willie." Dear, dear, what a playful wit one lung and two galls develop.

WORLDLY OBSERVATIONS IN CHURCH

Editor TRIBUNE: I see that my innocent communication in which I briefly stated what I saw and heard in a fashionable church one Sunday evening in a great Eastern city has been the subject of considerable criticism by individuals and newspapers.

I want to say that it was not my purpose nor intention to say aught against true devotion or genuine religion. On the contrary, both are good and commendable. But it is the spurious article which is to be condemned.

With Burns I desire to say:

"All hail Religion, maid divine,
Pardon a muse so mean as mine,
Who in her rough imperfect rhyme,
Thus dares to name thee,
To stigmatize false friends of thine,
Can ne'er defame thee."

What I did try to express was that it was not religion at all. It was a show. A show of millinery. A show of fine raiment. A show of jewelry. A show of oratory. And the chief attraction was a magnificent organ and a well-paid choir. There was an evident lack of devotion. It impressed me that the "worshippers" were there to see and be seen. Christ was poor. He had nowhere to lay His head. He condemned Pharisees and hypocrites. It seems to me that we have drifted far from original Christian simplicity.

The genuine article is all right, but it is the spurious which I condemn.

God knows I'm not the thing I should be,
Nor e'en am I the thing I could be,
But twenty times I rather would be
An Atheist clean,
Than under gospel colors hid be,
Just for a screen.

In Memoriam.

Sleep, thy duty nobly done,
Rest, though life was just begun;
Ambition's course was scarcely run,
Earth's experience not all won.
Yet, sleep to thee has come.

Sleep, death's chrysalis shall break,
And hope new born awake;
In other spheres to undertake—
And of thy life perfection make.
So sleep, though hearts do ache.

Sleep, kindly heart, most sincere friend;
Actions live though life may end,
And through memory shall ascend—
With our thoughts and lives to blend.

NO REASON FOR IT

When Oakland Citizens Show the Way.

There can be no just reason why any reader of this will continue to suffer the tortures of an aching back, the annoyances of urinary disorders, the dangers of diabetes or any kidney ills when relief is so near at hand and the most positive proof given that they can be cured. Read what an Oakland citizen says:

Mrs. I. Stewart, Model Confectionery and Bakery, No. 37 San Pablo avenue, says: "I was troubled with pain in the back which had ended as quickly and as thoroughly as Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at a drug store, ended mine, then that far too prevalent annoyance would cease to have any terrors for ladies who will take a course of the treatment with this strengthening and curative remedy. When I read about Doan's Kidney Pills in our papers, I was sadly in need of something for an attack of back-ache just like many of its predecessors. The treatment acted just as stated and relief followed in a surprisingly short space of time."

There is none more delusive,

ALFONSO'S OPPORTUNITY.

The young King of Spain is facing a condition that may make or break his reputation with his people. There is widespread dissatisfaction and suffering among them and as he meets the emergency so will his future be determined. When the United States relieved him of his colonies and the debts they produced his country was prosperous for a number of years. But it was not to continue. Labor troubles and dissatisfaction among the agriculturists resulted in riots and disorders of so serious a nature that it was necessary for the government to intervene. Unusual climatic conditions followed and last year's shortage of crops has this year been followed by what is believed will be a complete failure. In the city of Cadiz more than a quarter of the people were within two weeks asking aid from the authorities, while the provinces of Andalusia and Aragon are suffering. Land owners are fleeing to the cities, anticipating disturbances because they are well fed and the peasantry is starving.

To meet this condition will require the best advice the King will be able to secure. He must maintain the law in the face of circumstances that might task the brain of a more experienced ruler, while he cannot afford to lose his friends among the landed gentry. If he is to be the ruler his people believe he should be, he must take the situation in hand and not leave it to the grafting tendencies of the average Spanish official. Whatever funds are provided for the relief of the stricken provinces must be distributed in such manner as to give each applicant his just share. If the King can, by his personal and official influence, meet these conditions he will have made a name for himself among the rulers of Europe; but if he fails the fortunes of his house will suffer.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

He Ought Not To Have Done It.

The President of the United States went to the bottom of Long Island Sound recently in a submarine vessel. This showed an impudent disregard of his public responsibilities. The life of the President is safeguarded in many ways, not for his own safety, but because of the harm and loss which would come to the nation in the event of his death. The death of President Roosevelt at the present time would mean an upsetting of business and a derangement of the affairs of the nation which would cause losses of millions of dollars to say nothing of other important interests which would be jeopardized. The President has no justification for putting the interests of the people in peril without a shadow of need. It has been stated that the favorable issue of the negotiations for peace between Russia and Japan hung on the efforts of President Roosevelt. We do not know how far this was true. But suppose it a fact. Has any man a right to put the peace of nations in peril without grave necessity? The old saying that "public office is a public trust" has been pretty well worn, but it will never cease to be true, and from the President down there needs to be among public officials a more weighty sense that they bear the interests of the people as a sacred trust which should neither be betrayed nor lightly imperiled.—From the Watchman, Boston.

It would have been incredible brutality if Chas. F. Lemberger, of Syracuse, N. Y., had not done the best he could for his suffering son. "My boy," he says, "let a fearful gash over his eye. CHEWING GUM TO ROB THEM

NOVEL METHOD OF THIEVES IN TAKING TICKETS FROM COMPANY.

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—Employees of the Interborough Company, it was announced yesterday in a local police court, have been robbing the company of $10,000 a month. The thefts have been confined to "L" tickets and were effected by a partnership of sellers and choppers.

Detectives of the company discovered that the inside of the glass compartment of the chopping box would be made wat, and the tickets which stuck were taken out by means of a steel rod with chewing gum fastened to its end. The extracted tickets were then disposed of through the ticket sellers. Two of the detectives allege that they caught Joseph Temperman, a ticket chopper in the act of removing tickets in this fashion. He was arrested and held for examination.

HEAVY BLOW TO MANUFACTURERS

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—Cablegrams from Argentina, were received yesterday by the leading exporters in New York saying that the government had given notice that it was to levy a prohibitive tariff tomorrow on all parts of the agricultural and industrial machinery used in repairing and calling on American manufacturers to ask the American government to intervene. The wires were kept hot all yesterday afternoon between New York and other chief cities, and by nightfall arrangements had been completed to lay the matter before the Secretary of State today.

A representative of the American exporters said yesterday: "This news is so sudden we hardly know which way to turn. We do not even know if Argentina is to apply the prohibitive tariff to European and Australian exports, although we believe not. We will ask Secretary Root to direct the American Minister at Buenos Ayres to intervene. "If this prohibitive tariff goes into effect it will be a heavy blow to American manufacturers. More than a thousand carloads of machinery are shipped every year from this country to Argentina, but there is little profit in the trade. The profitable end of the business is in the export to Argentina of spare parts used for repairing on which duty has averaged less than 25 per cent levied on machinery proper."

"It will be a day or two before we find out if we can stop the new tariff or ascertain the motive of Argentina. She has practically no coal, iron or wood, except dye woods, so there is no opportunity for Argentina to build factories to compete with foreign makers of machinery. There must be some trick behind this move."

WILLIAM ASTOR SUES FOR $1,000,000

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—William Waldorf Astor has filed a claim against the city for $1,000,000, asserting that his property here has been damaged by the changing of grades. The claim was published in the City Record yesterday.

MAY RETURN.

SEOUL, Sept. 14.—It is rumored here that M. Payot, the former Russian Minister to Korea, and M. Gumschery, agent for the Yalu Timber Company, are preparing to return here, and the friends of Russia are anticipating their arrival.

Three storms which attained the violence of a typhoon have swept Korea. The town of Gensan is flooded, and at Seoul many people have been drowned and many buildings destroyed. The train service has been interrupted.

CRATER VOMITING PILLAR OF FIRE

ACTION OF STROMBOLI IS CAUSING ALARM AMONG PEOPLE.

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—The Herald European edition publishes the following from its correspondent at Naples: The eruption of Mount Vesuvius continues as in the last few days, but without tending to increase. On the other hand, according to a telegram to the Matinee, Stromboli is causing great alarm, its crater vomiting a high pillar of fire and dense smoke, accompanied by loud noises.

The ground presenting numerous crevasses and many houses have been abandoned. The custom house and semaphore stations have collapsed.

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—The Tanager correspondent of the Herald cables that Baron de Forest on board his yacht, the Honor, is proceeding to Morocco, whence he intends going inland into Southern Morocco, thence on an exploring expedition to the desert of Sahara. Forest is believed to be undertaking the journey on his account. Though an Austrian, he is under British protection.

STRIKERS PAID OFF.

MAY IRWIN AT THE MACDONOUGH

Last night another large house greeted May Irwin and her company of players at the Macdonough theater in the three-act comedy entitled "Mrs. Black Is Back." If you have the blues, are tired or worried, or if you feel in the pink of good spirits, it will more than pay you heart good to see her in this play. It brings you long drawn out plot to bother you, no sadness or sentiment, but a play full of good humor, plenty of vim, will make you forget your troubles and you will do nothing but laugh until your sides ache; it's a real jolly amusement and will make your spirits revive. Another thing not to be overlooked is her selection of coon songs which are sung to perfection.

It will not pay to dwell on any synopsis of the play, suffice it to say if you're looking for a good time, this is your show; if you're a book-maker, a lawyer, or in fact, follow any vocation in life, it makes no difference, this is your style. As to cast, of course, May Irwin is in my opinion without a peer as Mrs. Black.

Jane Burby, as Emily Mason, Mrs. Black's sister, plays her part to perfection; May Donohue, as Lizzy, Mrs. Black's cook, who is always "havin' her job," is fine piece of character work; Louis Foley, as Tom Larkey, Mrs. Black's physical culturist, is the limit. He plays a part extremely difficult to portray.

Tonight is the last night of May Irwin, and a packed house is expected.

TOURING WORLD ON WAGER

TWO MEN SEEK TO WIN $10,000 BY WORKING WAY AROUND GLOBE.

J. N. Millette and J. E. Talbot, two recent visitors in this city, are working their way round the world on a $10,000 wager. They are allowed three years in which to make the trip and are not allowed to accept any charity or gift of any kind. As stock in trade and a foundation from which to work Millette delivers lectures on the Canadian Northwest and Talbot is correspondent for the Winnipeg "Telegraph."

Mr. Millette and Mr. Talbot started on their novel trip on August 1 of this year and had between them only $51, the proceeds of a concert given for them at Winnipeg on the eve of their departure. Their equipment consists of but one suit of clothes each, one hat, one change of linen, a pair of high top boots and a violin belonging to Talbot. It is not been for the musical talent of both men they might have spent many a lonesome hour.

Their first stopping place was St. Paul. The next stopping place was Livingston and Gardiner in Montana and from there they went to Portland, where they visited the fair.

Only a week ago they arrived in San Francisco with one cent. They bought tickets for Oakland, but as they did not know that the tickets included the train ride from the pier to the city, they walked the ties into town. Ten cents was all they had left, and with no meal or bed for the night it was too late in the day to secure any work, so they stopped in at a bakery and purchased a loaf of bread. From here they were directed to W. Meek of San Lorenzo. Evening was coming on, so they commenced their long and tedious walk to San Lorenzo. The weather was beautiful, but this could not prevent the "Sandman's" visit, and when a haystack was reached they stretched their weary bodies and slept until morning, when they again resumed their journey.

When they reached San Lorenzo they were instructed to go again to Oakland, where they secured employment from the Oakland Tractor Company at the Ford street street shoes. But they thought that Oakland was the worst place way-farers could encounter in looking for a job, and they decided to leave the secured employment they are full of prizes for Oakland and California.

After this have accumulated sufficient funds to resume their journey they will visit the following places: San Francisco, Honolulu, Philippines, Yokohama, Hongkong, Japan, China, Singapore, Australia, Sumatra, Borneo, Java, Ceylon, Ceylon, Obock, Abyssinia, Madagascar, Cape Town, St. Helena, Congo, St. Louis, Senegal, Gibraltar, Morocco, Algeria, Tunis, Naples, Alexandria, Egypt, Jerusalem, Constantinople, Odessa, Valparaiso, St. Petersburg, Berlin, Cologne, Brussels, Anvers, London, Paris, Marseilles, Barcelona, Madrid, Bordeaux, Buenos Ayres, Rio de Janeiro, Venezuela, Mexico, Cuba, Florida and New York.

THEIR SEVENTIETH ANNIVERSARY

JUDGE MELVIN RECEIVES WORD OF REMARKABLE EVENT.

Judge Henry A. Melvin of the Superior Court has received a copy of the Catiz, Ohio, Republican, describing the seventieth wedding anniversary near the city of Catiz of his granduncle and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Osburn.

Mr. Osburn was born in Westmoreland county, Pennsylvania, in 1813, and is therefore in his ninety-third year. His wife was born in Ohio in 1816. Both are enjoying perfect health.

The celebration of the wedding anniversary occurred on the old farm, where they have lived for considerably more than half a century, and was attended by their six children and a large company of friends.

TWO MURDERERS ESCAPE THE GALLOWS

CHICAGO, Sept. 14.—Two Chicago murderers escaped final sentence to the gallows yesterday by a margin of a moment, after one of them had declared again and again that he preferred hanging to life imprisonment. The other had persistently averred his innocence, refusing to make the plea of guilty that was necessary for the change of sentence to prison for life.

Two urgent and excited lawyers worked with the convicted men and won them to confusion just as Judge Barnes in the Criminal Court was starting to speak the words setting the date of execution.

John Lorenz and John Nadolski were the two stubborn prisoners. They already had been convicted of the killing Fritz Krueger on the night of March 18, 1905, in a saloon.

Danderine

GREW MISS LEWIS' HAIR AND WE CAN PROVE IT

The Great Danderine Never Fails to Produce the Desired Results

MISS Lewis' hair was very thin and it was less than two feet in length when she began using Danderine. She says her hair and scalp are now fairly teeming with new life and vigor. That's the main secret of this great remedy's success as a hair grower. It enlivens, invigorates and fairly electrifies the hair glands and tissues of the scalp, causing unusual and unheard-of activity on the part of these two most important organs, resulting in a strenuous and continuous growth of the hair.

The following is a reproduction of Miss Lewis' last letter:

January 3, 1905.

Dear Doctor Knowlton:—

You know I told you in my first letter that my hair would not reach much below my shoulders, and that all of it together only made one tiny braid.

I am sending you my photograph, which I had taken at Stevens Bros. It tells the whole story better than I can tell it.

Everybody I know is using Danderine, so you see I am doing something to show my appreciation.

Sincerely yours, (Miss) EVA LEWIS.

Danderine makes the scalp healthy and fertile and keeps it so. It is the greatest scalp fertilizer and therefore the greatest hair-producing remedy the world has ever known. It is a natural food and a wholesome medicine for both the hair and scalp. Even a 25c bottle of it will put more genuine life in your hair than a gallon of any other hair tonic ever made. It shows results from the very start.

NOW at all druggists in three sizes, 25 cents, 50 cents and $1. per bottle

FREE. To show how quickly Danderine acts we will send a large sample free by return mail to any one who sends this advertisement to the Knowlton Danderine Co., Chicago, with their name and address and 10 cents in silver or stamps to pay postage.

 IN THE TOURNAMENT WITH A SCORE OF 565.

Great interest is being manifested in TRIBUNE tournament:
 THE TRIBUNE Bowling Tournament
 now being held on the Syndicate Alleys.
 The third night's play was held last evening and some very fair scores were registered.
 The highest score of the evening was made by Davidson, who, in his three games, rolled up a total of 576.
 In his first game he made a score of 211, the highest score for a single game during the evening.
 The next man in the 500 class was Jones, who made a total of 565.

WEST OAKLAND CLUB
SHOWS BOXERS OF CLASS

On next Tuesday evening the West Oakland Club will present an excellent card of amateur bouts for its monthly exhibition.
 The card, which has already been published in THE TRIBUNE, is an exceptionally fine one, and will surely provide as fine a show as was seen last month.
 The match-maker has used his best efforts in making the matches, and has secured the best of talent.
 The program is made up of contestants who have appeared in former bouts before the club and have always put up fast fights, and can be depended upon to mix it from start to finish.
 THE FIRST BOUT.
 Willie Brown and Kid Britt meet in the first bout. Brown has boxed several times at the club, the latest go being with Jockey English, and it was one of the best bouts ever seen at the club.
 Britt is a good one, and is working out at the club, and from appearances will give Brown a very hard fight, as he has a wallop in both hands, and knows how to use it.
 Jack Mulvey and Johnny Crowe meet in the next go. Crowe is an old timer and boxed Young Gaudy twice at the club and put up red hot bouts both times. He is very clever and fast. His opponent is a good one and can be depended upon to put up a rattling bout.
 EDWARDS VS. CARTER.
 Kid Edwards and Kid Carter meet in the next bout to settle a little misunderstanding, and when they come together things will turn out for a while.
 Al Pacoch and Bill Cooper come together in the next go. Pacoch recently boxed William Gunther at the club, and put up one of the best goes ever witnessed at the club. His opponent comes from San Francisco with a reputation as a good one, and promises Pacoch one of the hardest bouts he has ever had.
 HERE'S A GOOD ONE.
 Jack Hughes and Kid Bosco come together in the next bout. Hughes beat Jim Alexander at the last show, and defeated him in three rounds.
 Bosco met and defeated Young Sharkey at the July show, and Kid De Ponto, in June, and put up a hurricane bout.
 Both have a punch like the kick of a mule, and when they come together a mix-up will be in order.
 THE MAIN EVENT.
 The main event will be furnished by Ed Mensor and Jack Riley. Mensor has boxed several times at the club. He beat his opponent in one-half a round at the last show, has met Young Gaudy twice (one draw, lost one decision). Young Lavigne (knock out, two rounds); Kid Williams (knock out, one-half round). Jack Riley's record for the club is as follows: Kid Johnson, decision, four rounds; lost to Spike Polley (stopped by police); beat J. De Ponto, four rounds; beat Brick McGauley, four rounds.
 In all their contests they have mixed it up, and a hot main event will be in order.

HEAVY WIN

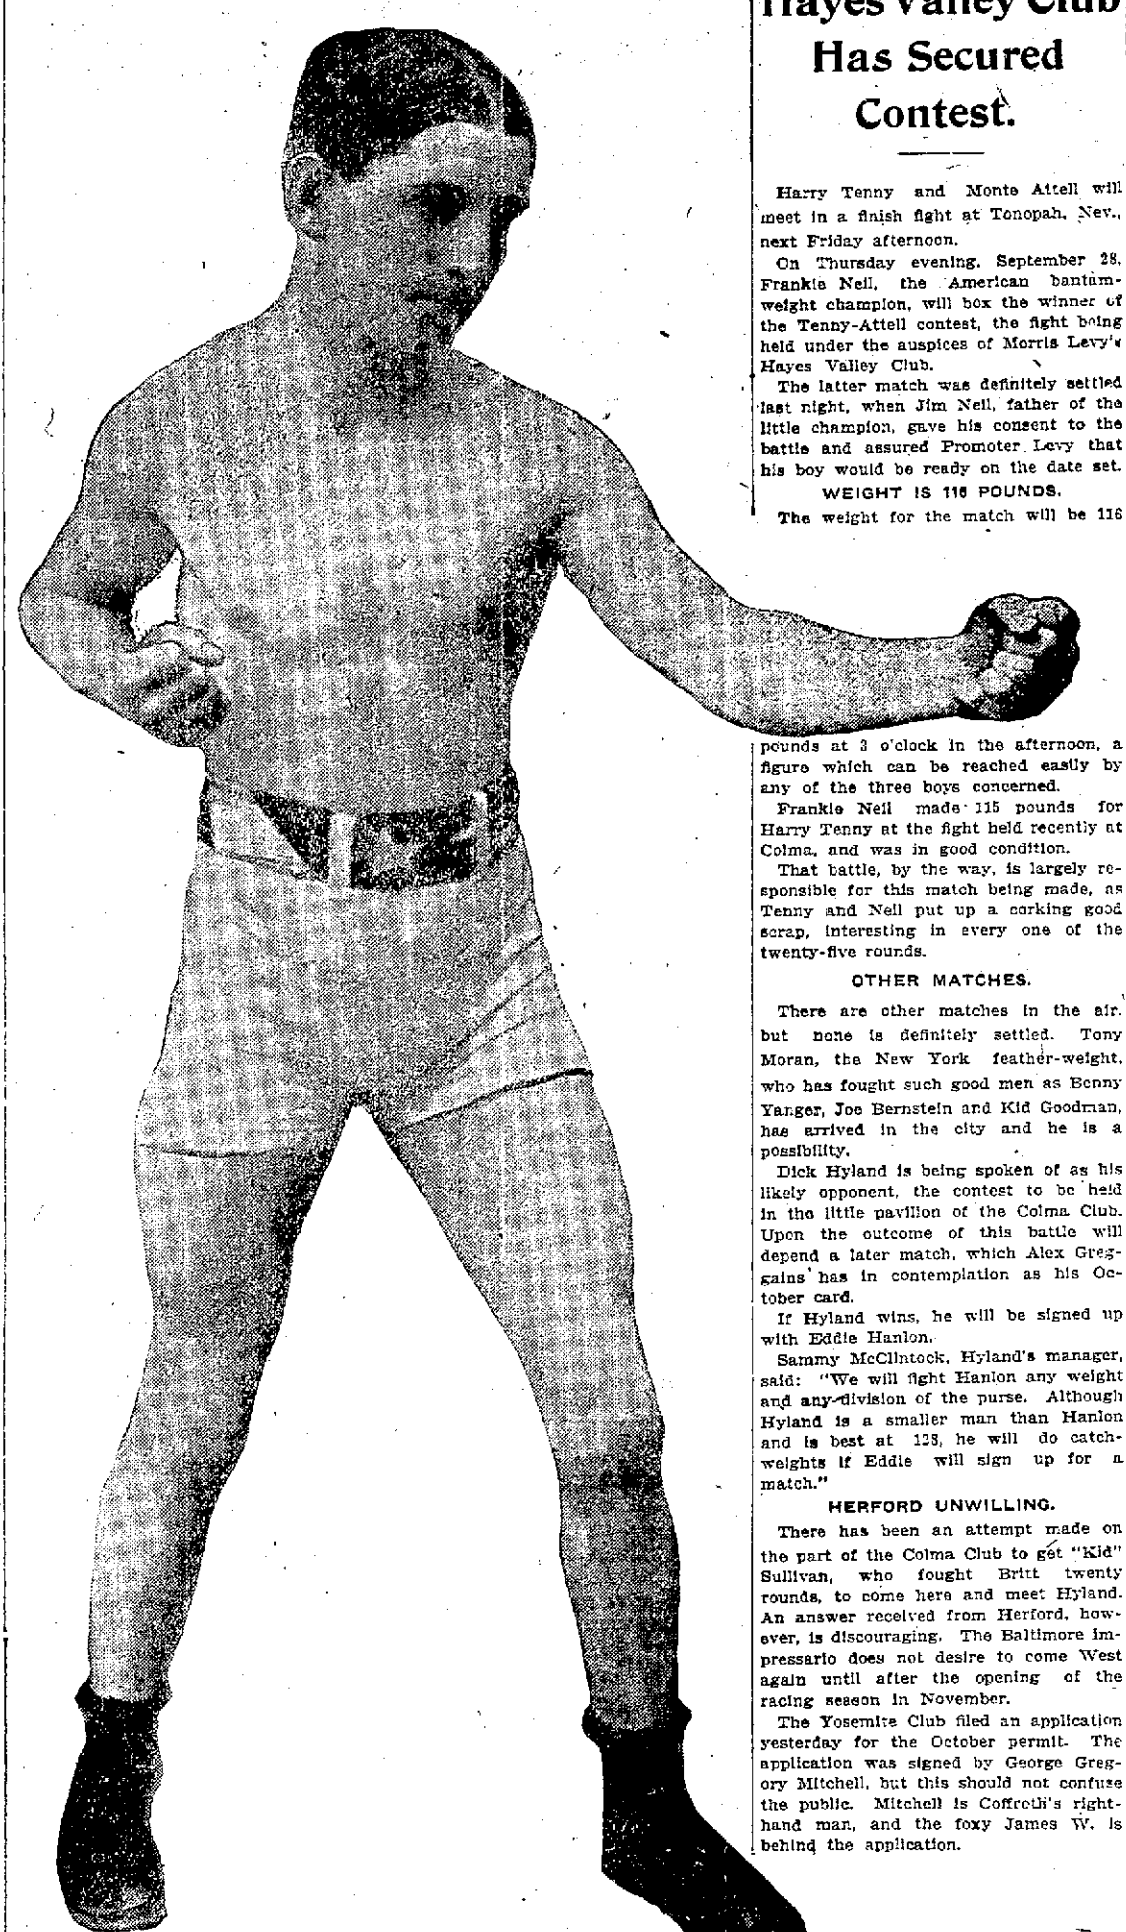

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 14.—Los Angeles opened the home series with Portland yesterday and lost by the score of 7 to 4. Cates was in the box for the visitors, and Hall pitched for the locals until the fifth inning, when he was replaced by Goodwin. Portland won by hard hitting with men on bases. Although the home team scored as many hits as the visitors and made less than half as many errors, they were unable to hit at critical stages and a total of nine men were left on bases. Two double plays by the locals and the batting of Householder were the features. The latter secured a triple, a double and a single out of four times up. Goodwin replaced Hall in the fifth inning after six runs had been scored, and allowed out of the game in the first inning for protesting a decision of Umpire Davis on strikes, and was replaced at short by Tomann. JUNIOR MEMBERS OF RELIANCE CLUB
IN REVOLT AGAINST RESOLUTION

The junior members of the Reliance Athletic Club are wondering where they are at.
 Some of them are in open revolt and threaten to leave the club, while others argue that they are lucky they are still on the roll of the big organization.
 The trouble is all over a resolution introduced at the meeting of the Board of Directors Tuesday evening.
 This resolution provides for the curtailing of the privileges of this class of members and a decided reduction in the hours allowed them at the club.
 Should this resolution prevail, juniors will be allowed to visit the rooms of the club only on Tuesday and Thursday between the hours of 2 p. m. and 10 p. m., and Saturdays from noon until 6 p. m. Now they are admitted at any time.
 Further, under the proposed new order of things, juniors will be permitted to use only the gymnasium, shower baths, locker-room or the running track in the second floor, and the lounge room, which was formerly the billiard room.
 At present juniors are denied the privileges of the billiard and card rooms only.
 As the proposed resolution is the sole topic of conversation at the club, there are many theories advanced as to the cause leading up to the introduction of the measure.
 The majority seem to think it is the result of abuse of those privileges extended this class of membership, though some think it was caused by a vigorous kick from the active members, who feel that the juniors have been getting too much for their money.
 As the proposed resolution has been laid over until the next meeting of the Board, the juniors will have time in which to confer with the directors and voice their sentiments, as it is said they will do. At any rate, there promises to be an interesting time at the next meeting of the Board of Directors.
 Director Walter B. Fawcett, when asked regarding the proposed change, stated that the resolution was a modification of a proposed amendment to the rules which had been submitted to the House Committee, but which had been laid over until President Fitzgerald could be present.
 As to the action the directors would take, he professed not to know.

REMARKABLE BOWLING SCORE IS MADE

ON THE SYNDICATE BOWLING ALLEYS YESTERDAY AFTERNOON A REMARKABLY GOOD SCORE FOR THREE GAMES WAS REGISTERED BY MR. WHITNEY, WHO IS BOWLING IN THE TRIBUNE TOURNAMENT.
 HE MADE A SCORE OF 662 FOR THREE GAMES, MAKING 237 THE FIRST GAME, 178 THE SECOND GAME, AND 247 THE LAST GAME.

time, to correct the weak line work brought out by Tuesday's game.
 In the meantime there will be secret practice for both Varsity and freshmen until Monday. At that time another bleacher rally will be held.
 VARSITY MAY GO SOUTH.
 It is now possible that the Varsity will go south to Los Angeles on or near October 20th for a game with one of the southern teams. It has been found very beneficial in the East for college teams to take a trip of this kind at about that time of the season when a team is likely to go stale.
 The trip to Los Angeles is not a long one and still would be sufficient to give the men a change that might be very beneficial. There are a number of southern teams that would be very glad to get the game. They would also be of sufficient strength to give the Varsity a heavy practice game.
 EMERSON ILL, BLAMES CLAM CHOWDER.
 TACOMA, Sept. 14.—Emerson did not pitch yesterday afternoon's game for Tacoma as scheduled. It may be that Emerson will not be in condition to pitch for several days, but Manager Fisher hopes to have the boy twirler in the box later in the week.
 Emerson was taken violently ill early Tuesday evening and required attention of physicians all night. Emerson and Fitzgerald went into a downtown restaurant night before last and ate clams in all shapes and forms, but they blame the result upon the clam chowder. Fitz escaped with a few slight twinges in the region of his stomach, but Emerson was in a bad way last night, and there are some fears of ptomaine poisoning.

Contest.

Harry Tenny and Monte Attell will meet in a finish fight at Tonopah, Nev., next Thursday afternoon.
 On Thursday evening, September 28, Frankie Neil, the American bantam-weight champion, will box the winner of the Tenny-Attell contest, the fight being held under the auspices of Morris Levy's Hayes Valley Club.
 The latter match was definitely settled last night, when Jim Neil, father of the little champion, gave his consent to the battle and assured Promoter Levy that his boy would be ready on the date set.
 WEIGHT IS 110 POUNDS.
 The weight for the match will be 116 pounds at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, a figure which can be reached easily by any of the three boys concerned.

 Frankie Neil made 115 pounds for Harry Tenny at the fight held recently at Colma, and was in good condition.
 That battle, by the way, is largely responsible for this match being made, as Tenny and Neil put up a narking good scrap, interesting in every one of the twenty-five rounds.

OTHER MATCHES.
 There are other matches in the air, but none is definitely settled. Tony Moran, the New York feather-weight, who has fought such good men as Benny Yanger, Joe Bernstein and Kid Goodman, has arrived in the city and he is a possibility.
 Dick Hyland is being spoken of as his likely opponent, the contest to be held in the little pavilion of the Colma Club. Upon the outcome of this battle will depend a later match, which Alex Gregains has in contemplation as his October card.
 If Hyland wins, he will be signed up with Eddie Hanlon.
 Sammy McClintock, Hyland's manager, said: "We will fight Hanlon any weight and any division of the purse. Although Hyland is a smaller man than Hanlon and is best at 125, he will do catch-weights if Eddie will sign up for a match."

HERFORD UNWILLING.
 There has been an attempt made on the part of the Colma Club to get "Kid" Sullivan, who fought Britt twenty rounds, to come here and meet Hyland. An answer received from Herford, however, is discouraging. The Baltimore pressario does not desire to come West again until after the opening of the racing season in November.
 The Yosemite Club filed an application yesterday for the October permit. The application was signed by George Gregory Mitchell, but this should not confuse the public. Mitchell is Coffey's right-hand man, and the foxy James W. is behind the application.

FRUITVALE HIGH SCHOOL
FOOTBALL ELEVEN TO PLAY
THE POLYTECHNIC TEAM

The Fruitvale High School football team will play the Polytechnic High School team of Oakland next Saturday at the Oakland grounds on Thirteenth street, between Madison and Jackson streets.
 The Fruitvale team played last week against the Reliance Club team, but was defeated.
 Welby Vogel, captain of the Fruitvale High team, has taken much interest in the team and has had his squad at practice all week.
 NEW CAPTAIN.
 Heilmuller, who was elected captain of the Lick High School track team for this season, will not return to school. He has been under a doctor's care for some weeks, and for a time was so ill that friends were not allowed to see him.
 Gaining sufficient strength to get out of doors, he was sent to the country to recuperate. Heilmuller, like his brother of the University of California, is a splendid athlete, and his absence from Lick will be keenly felt by his team mates.
 Charles Mel has been elected to captain in Heilmuller's place.

"CO-EDS" AT UNIVERSITY
INTERESTED IN BOATING

BERKELEY, Sept. 14.—Interest in boating is growing among the women students of the University of California, as was shown by the action taken at a meeting of the Women's Boat Club, held yesterday morning.
 It was decided to sell the boat at present owned by the club, because it is unfit for the service demanded, and to purchase a new one. Besides this another boat will be rented for the use of the club. Arrangements for securing the new boats will be made as soon as possible, and notice will be posted when they are received.
 New regulations were adopted concerning the use of the boat. A card will be given each member upon receipt of her dues and this card will be punched each time the boat is given out, thus preventing outsiders from using the boats to the exclusion of club members.
 The committees in charge of the club affairs are planning to promote its interest actively this year.
 It is expected that interclass races will excite great interest and captains will soon be appointed. With these and several innovations which are being considered, it is confidently expected that boating will be brought to fully as important a place among the athletic activities of the women as that held by basketball and fencing.

11 FALL DOWN BASEBALL ON
BEFORE HIS BERKELEY
CURVES FIELD

TACOMA, Wash., Sept. 14.—In a splendid game, Seattle forged out ahead, Lynch's error being responsible for the Tigers' defeat. In the eighth, Walters drove off with a lucky hit and Blankenship led a safe one to Lynch, the latter letting the ball go away from him and Walters scoring. Kefe and Hall pitched remarkable ball, the Seattle twirler having a shade the better of it, striking out eleven men. The fielding features were furnished by Casey, McLaughlin, Hart and R. Hall. Tacoma had several chances to score, but could not draw the necessary hit. The attendance was practically nil, there not being over 100 people present. Score:
 TACOMA.

MEETING OF
ASSOCIATION
CLUBS

The annual meeting of the California Association Football Union will be held Saturday, September 28, in San Francisco. Delegates will attend from the Albin Rovers, Independents, Alamedas, Oakland Hornets, Pickwick, Vampires, Occidentals, Pirates, Seamen's Institute, Sacramento, Eureka and Santa Cruz clubs. It is also probable that the Olympic and Reliance clubs and St. Matthew's Academy of San Mateo will send delegates.
 The latest encouraging news received by the association enthusiasts is that Salt Lake City has fallen into line with a newly organized league, having a membership of six clubs as a start. Alfred Churchill, late of the Rifles' team, California League, is the moving spirit.
 The meeting of the California Association League will be held Saturday, September 30th.

SUNDAYS RACE HAS BEEN CHANGED

The side-wheel race between Mr. Grendon and Mr. Pretti's animals, scheduled for next Sunday on the Alameda Driving Track, has been postponed, as Mr. Grendon's horse picked up a nail the other day and consequently will be unable to race on the day set.
 Mr. Hynes, the owner of "Twilight," has consented to fill Mr. Grendon's engagement on Sunday. "Twilight" has the reputation of being one of the fastest horses in the country, and Mr. Pretti has not a very firm idea that his animal will be able to win out.
 However, he will race just to keep up interest in the sport.

COUNCIL WILL GRANT THE NEW DEAL ON TELEPHONE FRANCHISE

Eight Members Have Declared Themselves in Favor of the Home Company's Application.

(From S. F. Chronicle, Sept. 14.)

OAKLAND, Sept. 13.—The City Council will meet tomorrow night in committee of the whole and will once more take up the application of the Alameda Home Telephone Company for a franchise to do business in Oakland. Eight of the eleven members of the Council have declared themselves over their signatures as favoring the granting of such a franchise, so it is believed that the boon desired by the new company will be granted, in which event work will begin about the end of October or early in November.

There has been no positive opposition to the new company, further than that the Oakland Home Telephone Company, which was granted a franchise about three years ago and cannot now possibly complete its lines within the limit of the time set by the franchise, has interposed an appeal that it be granted further opportunity to install an automatic system. The present company, the Pacific States, or Sunset as it is known locally, is, naturally, averse to the new company because it means competition. In a statement made by local officials of the Pacific States today, however, they claim that the new company will do them little harm.

"We do not like the idea of another company being brought into competition with us at a time when we have shown our desire to give good service by expending hundreds of thousands of dollars on a new switchboard," said one official today, "but we are not doing any worrying about the franchise."

"In the first place, the new company will have absolutely no long distance service, which will make it a purely local affair. It is true, perhaps, that merchants may have to install the new instruments, but the merchants will be the ones to whom an additional service will appeal the most. It will do us no harm, because in order to get long distance service the merchants must have our phone, and in order to reach the great majority of their customers they must continue to have our phones. Doubtless the granting of a new franchise will result in the installation of hundreds of new phones, but such phones will be nothing more than additions to the present service. Citizens who use our lines may also desire to use the other company's, but there will not be one case in a thousand where the installation of a 'Home' phone will be followed by the taking out of the 'Pacific States' instrument. Naturally, we don't want the new company, but the matter is up to the Council and we are not endeavoring to sway the Councilmen's minds one way or the other."

Speaking for the new company, one of its officials said today: "Yes, we believe we will get our franchise, and get it quickly, and we will go ahead promptly with the work. In fact, we plan to have the first pick put into the ground within twenty-four hours after every legal obstacle is removed. Of course, we will have only a local service at first, but we are going to push things hard in San Francisco to secure a franchise there, and we expect soon to have all of Central California labyrinized with our lines. Within a reasonable time we will offer complete long distance service. We believe, as we claim the officers of the old companies do, that the automatic is the telephone of the future, and we believe it will not be long before the people of Oakland agree with us on that proposition."

WILL SELL THE PEST-HOUSE SITE

As a result of the opposition that was developed last winter against the pest-house that the Board of Health proposed to erect on its property on the tidal canal, a resolution was passed at the Board meeting last night authorizing the sale of the property. The property lies in a sanitary district outside of the city and at the time the Board proposed to build the hospital the strongest possible opposition was developed among adjacent property holders.

The Board now proposes to sell the lots and with the proceeds purchase land inside the Oakland sanitary district where the hospital can be erected without opposition.

WOMAN SAVES HOME

Last night the home of Byron Rutley of 1112 Alce street would have been totally destroyed had it not been for the persistence of Mrs. Rutley in getting into communication with the fire department over the telephone.

Mrs. Rutley discovered the fire in her dining room. The flames had spread to the parlor, and as she was unable to put it out she called up the fire department by telephone. She was unable to make herself understood and all the time the flames were gaining rapid headway. Finally she ran across the street and there succeeded in getting a response from the department. The thirtieth street chemical was the first at the house and extinguished the blaze before any great damage was done.

PRESIDENT LILLEY GIVES FACTS TO THE BOARD OF HEALTH.

The Board of Health held a meeting last night and discussed the garbage question. The deal between the scavengers and the Pacific Incinerating Company is about complete and the Board of Health will try to see that the plans are effectively carried out.

There was some discussion of the details of the regulations which the Board of Health will insist upon and it was brought out that there is a well settled conviction that no wooden or tarpaulin coverings for the garbage wagons should be allowed. The members of the Board favor light metal covers for these vehicles and this will be insisted upon.

FEW CENTS APART.
While the message from the official of the Incinerating Company does not go into the details of the proposed compact between them and the scavengers it is generally understood that the only matter of difference between the two contracting parties is one of a few cents per ton in the price to be charged for destroying the garbage.

As is stated in the letter sent to the Board of Health will probably be settled tonight at a meeting to be held for that purpose.

The Board merely received the communication as being intended for information and directed Health Officer Ever to prepare a circular of directions to the householders and send it out as soon as the incinerating people and the scavengers come to terms and the exact nature of the contract is made known.

LETTER FROM LILLEY.

The letter from A. S. Lilley, president of the Incinerating Company, which was read at last night's meeting, which is sent from the San Francisco office, is addressed to Dr. E. J. Ever, Health Officer, and is here given:

"As I advised you this morning, our company will in all probability make an agreement with the Scavengers' Union of Oakland on Thursday, September 14th, whereby they will collect and deliver to us all the combustible garbage and waste matter of the city. As we have not signed the agreement as yet, I cannot definitely give you the terms. In our meetings the scavengers have stated that they will act under our instructions as our agents and will not only obey the rules and regulations of the Health Board as well as the provision of the new ordinance, but will impose a fine on any member of the union who disregards these instructions."

THE SCAVENGERS.

"There are between forty and fifty scavengers in the union and we will furnish you their names as soon as the agreement is signed so that you can furnish licenses to our proper agents."

"Under the amendment to the garbage ordinance the unit of measure is ten (10) gallons, and each householder must provide a can of this capacity with a tight cover in which to keep the garbage. As you well know, we have in our possession about nine thousand of these cans in good condition, and we agreed at the last meeting of the City Council to turn over these cans to the householders at a charge of seventy-five cents (75¢) each. I can safely state these cans cannot be bought on the Pacific Coast for that much at present, and I consider that each purchaser will be getting a very good value for his money. We had thirteen thousand of these cans made by the American Can Company and purchasing so great a quantity, we were able to have them laid down here for fully fifty cents less than they could be made on the Pacific Coast.

COVER FOR WAGONS.
"As regards the cover for wagons, concerning which we had some conversation today, I beg to advise you that I have further investigated this matter since my return to the city, and I am firmly convinced that the San Francisco method of using tarpaulin is far better than the wood cover that is used in Oakland. We have in view some radical changes at the furnace looking toward a considerable saving in fuel. If the plan inaugurated is successful, we hope to be able to cremate not only the garbage that is delivered at our plant, but also the waste matter without increasing the size of the plant at the present time. It will probably be necessary for us to work two shifts of twelve (12) hours each in order to successfully carry out our present scheme. We expect to turn over the collection of the garbage to the former scavengers on or about October 1st, but will notify you prior to that time. I would suggest that the health department issue a circular advising the householders of Oakland of the contemplated change and giving them some information regarding the new method of collection, etc., as well as advising them to provide a can and barrel for the segregation of material as at present. If you want our office to send out these circulars, we would be very glad to take care of that part of the work."

"I desire to thank you for your earnest co-operation and to assure you that our company is very appreciative of the assistance that you and your Board have rendered and we assure you that we will use every effort in our power to make this new method of collection and incineration of garbage a success."
